

All About Giant Panda Bears Information

Name: _____

All About Giant Panda Bear Information
Booklet

All About Giant Panda Bear information
Booklet is part of All About
Giant Panda Bear 4 page booklet.

This will help students to read and learn about Giant Panda Bear

Teaching students about animals is part of Science.

Happy Learning

GIANT PANDA BEARS

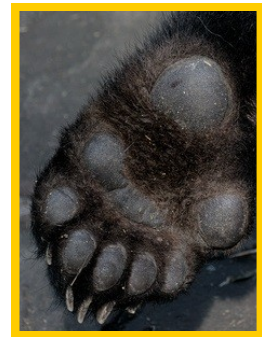

About Giant Panda Bears

Giant Panda Bears are mammals

Giant Panda Bears have 4 legs and 42 teeth, Also, they have very sharp claws and five fingers.

Giant Panda Bears can climb the tree as high as 13,000 feet.

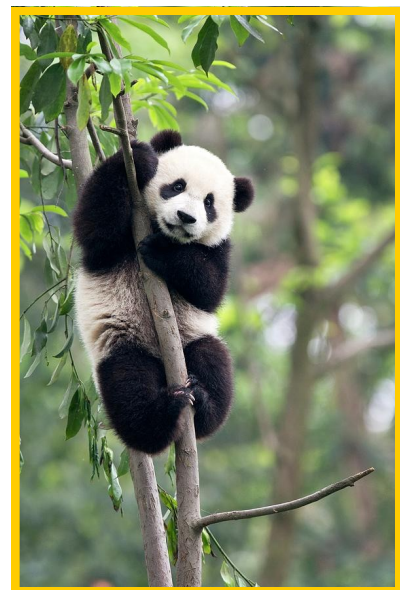

Male Giant Panda Bears can relax by doing handstands against trees.

Giant Panda Bears have shaggy-haired black and white - coloured fur.

Giant Panda Bears can stand up on two feet.

Giant Panda Bears are very good swimmers.

Giant Panda Bears can hold bamboo shoot using their fingers.

Where do Giant Panda Bears Live?

Giant Panda Bears live in Asia.
Part of central China.
Also, Giant Panda Bears can be found in Mountains,
Bamboo Forests, Rainforests.

Hibernate

Giant Panda Bears do not hibernate during wintertime. They go down the mountain to find warmer weather and move back up to the cooler part of the forest.

What do Giant Panda Bears Eat?

Giant Panda Bears are omnivores and carnivores. They like to eat bamboo shoots, leaves, fish, small animals, stems. Also, plants and meat is part of their main diet.

Life Span

Giant Panda Bears can live up to 30 years in the wild.

Length and Weight

Male Giant Panda Bears can weigh about 350 pounds.

Female Giant Panda Bears can weigh about 200 pounds.

Giant Panda Bears length is 5.3 to 6.2 feet long Giant Panda Bears can grow up to 1.5 meters long.